ARTICLE I

TITLE, OBJECTS, LOCATION, CORPORATE SEAL

Section 1. Title: This association shall be known as Louisiana Quarter Horse Association (LQHA) and shall at all times be operated and conducted as a non-profit association in accordance with the laws of the State of Louisiana, providing for such organizations and by which it shall acquire all such rights as granted to associations of this kind.

Section 2. Objects: The purpose of LQHA shall be to collect, record and report the Louisiana show points of the Louisiana Approved Quarter Horse Shows and to stimulate and regulate any and all other matters such as may pertain to the state history, exhibition, publicity or improvement of this breed.

Section 3. Place of Business: The principle place of business shall be domiciled in the state of Louisiana at any location designated by the Executive Committee, but its members or officers may be residents of any city or parish in the state of Louisiana. Business pertaining to the LQHA may be carried on at any place convenient to such members or officials, as may be participating.

Section 4. Association Logo: The official Logo of LQHA shall be in the charge of the Secretary and shall be in the form copied below.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERS

Section 1. Members of LQHA shall be admitted, retained and expelled in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Board of Directors may, from time to time, adopt. In all matters governed by the vote of the members, each member in good standing shall be entitled to one vote. Member must be 18 or over in order to exercise voting privileges.

Section 2. The regular annual meeting of the members shall be held at such time and place as may be established by the Board of Directors for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may be brought before the meeting.

Prior notice to members of any annual regular or special meeting is not required, as members who desire to stay informed of LQHA's meetings and activities have an affirmative duty to do so through the website – www.lqha.com, a news, information, and advertising site.

For LQHA members such notice shall be given by mail, social medial or email, as determined by the board of directors.

Section 3. Special meeting of members may be held at such time and place as may be designated in the notice, when-ever called in writing by direction of the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors, or by notice signed by not less than 20% of the members then in good standing.

Notice of each special meeting, indicating briefly the object or objects thereof, shall be given in the same manner as provided with respect to notice of annual meetings.

Section 4. At any meeting of the members held in accordance with the foregoing provisions as to notice, the members attending such meeting shall constitute a quorum for all purposes unless the representation of a larger number should be required by law. To exercise voting privileges, a member must be physically present at a meeting, which privilege cannot be delegated by proxy.

Section 5. Any officer of LQHA may call the meeting of the members to order and may act as chairman of such meeting, precedence being given as follows: President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. In the absence of all such officers, members present may elect a chairman.

The Secretary of LQHA shall act as Secretary of all meetings of the members, but in his/her absence; the Directors may appoint any person to act as Secretary of the meeting.

Section 6. Whenever in these Bylaws the term member or members shall be used, unless otherwise specified, it shall mean a member or members having the right to vote.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The business and property of LQHA shall be managed and controlled by the Board of Directors, and an Executive Committee hereinafter created and empowered.

The Bylaws and rules affecting points of horses, members, and all other matters affecting the LQHA shall be subject to change only by the Board of Directors with ratification by the Executive Board.

The number of elected Directors will be frozen at 10. This does not include the Executive Committee or Youth Advisor. Any reallocation is to be made by the Executive Committee at the Annual Meeting.

Directors can be nominated each year at the annual meeting by the general membership, this in addition to a list of nominees for the position of director from the past years Board of Directors. The 10 Directors elected at the annual meeting shall serve for a period of three years.

Each Director elected to a position as Director shall be domiciled in the state of Louisiana, having the intent to make it his permanent home. To be eligible for election to and serve on the Board of Directors, an individual must be a member in good standing of LQHA for the calendar year prior to the annual meeting.

Each Director shall attend the annual convention and election. Consideration for an excused absence will be made on a case by case basis.

Criteria by which candidates are evaluated for nomination to the Board of Directors by the Executive Committee shall be established, from time to time, with prior approval of the Board of Directors.

Any elected Director who is absent for two consecutive times from meetings of the Board of Directors without an excused absence is automatically removed as a Director without further action, upon his second absence, making available for his position a vacancy to be filled by the President. Absences shall be evidenced by roll call at the meetings. That in accordance with the mission statement of LQHA, its elected board members are expected to assist in the provisions of beneficial services for its members. These services should enhance and encourage American Quarter Horse ownership and participation through Director Availability and visibility in the State of Louisiana.

Section 2. In addition to Directors so elected, the Board shall contain this additional category of Director:

(a) Director Emeritus. The Board of Directors shall contain a category of Director Emeritus, in recognition of the individual who has, in the past, served LQHA faithfully as a regular Director, which category shall vote at Director's meetings and be designated with lifetime tenure, on the following basis:

An individual who has reached the age of 70 years and having served the previous 10 consecutive years as a regular Director. Upon reaching his 70th birthday, he will continue as a regular Director until the next annual meeting, whereupon he will automatically be elevated to Director Emeritus, thereby creating a vacancy to be filled by election of a regular Director. Directors Emeritus will be awarded life membership in LQHA.

(b) Director-at-Large. An individual who has served twenty cumulative terms as elected Director, at the expiration of the twentieth term, shall automatically receive designation as "Director-at-Large" and serve with lifetime tenure with voting privilege, thereby creating a vacancy to be filled by election of a regular Director. Such individual shall be an LQHA member in good regulations pertaining to membership conduct, and in addition, the individual's conduct and reputation shall be exemplary, such as to favorably reflect on the Board of Directors and the LQHA. A Director-at-Large is subject to continual review by the Board, and may be removed by the Board of Directors for cause.

Section 3. In case of any vacancy in the Board of Directors by death, resignation, disqualification, or other cause, the President shall appoint a qualified successor to serve the unexpired term of the director they are replacing.

Section 4. The regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following the annual member's meeting, and no notice shall be required for any such regular meeting of the Board. The Board, by rule, may provide for other regular meetings at stated times and places, of which no notice shall be required.

Section 5. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held whenever called by the President or by two-thirds of the Directors.

The secretary shall give notice of each special meeting by emailing or telephone, the same to each board member at least 5 days before the meeting, but such notice may be waived by any Executive Committee Member. Unless otherwise indicated in the notice thereof, any and all business may be transacted at a special meeting.

Any meeting at which every Director may be present even though without any notice, any business may be transacted.

Section 6. A majority of the number of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but if at any meeting of the Board there may be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum shall be present.

Section 7. At meetings of the Board of Directors, business shall be transacted in such order as the Board of Directors may determine.

Section 8. Written contracts of LQHA shall be executed in behalf of LQHA by the President or Vice President or Secretary.

Section 9. At the regular annual meetings of the Board of Directors, the Board shall elect officers of LQHA.

Section 10. The Board of Directors shall have the power and authority to make, amend, repeal and enforce such rules and regulations, not contrary to law or the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as they may deem expedient concerning the conduct, management and activities of LQHA, the admission, classification, qualification, suspension and expulsion of members, removal of officers, the rules and regulations governing the procedure of such suspension and expulsion and removal, the fixing and collecting of dues and fees, regulations regarding maintaining the memberships, points, expenditures of money, auditing of books and records, awarding of championships, conducting of shows, contests, exhibitions, sales, futurities, and social functions and other details relating to the general purpose of LQHA, all, however, subject to revision or amendment by the members at any regular or special meeting of the members, provided written notice of intention of any rule or regulation change shall have been emailed and/or advertised on the LQHA website at least 30 days in advance of the meeting.

Section 11. The Board of Directors, from time to time may create and empower other committees, general or special.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1. Officers: The officers of LQHA elected after 1990 shall be the President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, and two additional members elected by and from the membership of the Amateur and Youth membership annual meeting, that being the Amateur President and the Youth President. Each shall serve a two year term and until the selection and qualification of his successor. Said officers may succeed themselves in office for 2 years only.

Section 2. President: The President shall be the chief executive officer of LQHA and shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. He shall see that the Bylaws, rules and regulations of LQHA are enforced, and shall perform all other duties that may be prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors. He shall be ex officio member of all committees.

Section 3. First Vice President: In the absence of the President, the First Vice President, and in his absence, the Second Vice President, shall have the powers and perform the duties of the President and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Past President: The office of Past President shall serve as an honorary and consulting position. His duty will be to assist the current President and lend advice on his experience as President. The Past President shall have the privilege of attending all meetings of the Board of Directors of LQHA, take part in discussions and vote. This voting privilege will be for the period of time as the original term of his/her successor.

ARTICLE VI

SECRETARY AND TREASURER

Section 1. In addition to the officers named in Article V, Section 1, there shall be the appointive offices of Secretary and Treasurer of LQHA. These offices shall be filled by the Executive Committee by appointment of qualified individual(s), with provisions for termination of appointment for cause, which appointment may be renewed by the Executive Committee. Other provisions of said appointment, such as salary, shall be on such terms as the Executive Committee, at its discretion, may determine. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person.

Section 2. The duties of such officers are as follows:

- (a) Secretary: The Secretary is the chief operating officer of LQHA, and, pursuant to direction of the Executive Committee, shall implement the actions, decisions and directions of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee; and shall manage LQHA's physical facilities and personnel. He shall keep the minutes of all membership and Directors meetings. He shall be the custodian for the safekeeping of all documents and records of LQHA and authority for points. He shall execute the official points demanded and proper to be issued by LQHA, and shall keep a record of the same. He shall collect all monies due LQHA and turn the same over to the Treasurer. He shall be ex officio secretary of all committees appointed by the President or Board of Directors. He shall make a report of his office to the Board of Directors when demanded and to the annual membership meeting, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time.
- (b) Treasurer: The Treasurer shall receive the money turned over to him by the Secretary and all other money. He shall disburse the same only upon itemized demands and upon the order of the Secretary. He shall account for all of the same by itemized statements in detail to each annual meeting of the members and to the Board of Directors when demanded. Also, he shall submit to the Executive Committee, at the first meeting following the annual meeting of the members, a detail budget of the proposed and anticipated expenditures for the forthcoming fiscal year of LQHA. Upon approval of this said budget, or its modification, it becomes binding upon the officers of LQHA and cannot be exceeded in the total amount set forth by more than 10% without a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Surety Bonds: The Secretary and the Treasurer and all other officers or employees of LQHA who may handle any funds of LQHA shall give a surety bond to be furnished at the expense of LQHA for the faithful discharge of his or her duties, if so required by the Executive Committee.

Section 4. Auditing of Accounts: LQHA shall conduct its financial affairs on the calendar year basis to begin January 1 and end December 31. A Financial Committee appointed by the President will review the financial affairs of LQHA before each meeting of the Board of Directors. A copy of the yearly financial statements will be made available at the General Membership meeting upon request. An annual commercial audit of the accounts of the Secretary and the Treasurer can be made every five (5) years at the discretion of the board.

ARTICLE VII

AMENDMENTS

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall have the power to make, amend and repeal the Bylaws of LQHA by vote of the majority of the Directors at any regular or special meeting of the Board, subject to the right of the members to rescind or amend any such Bylaws in the same manner as provided in Article III, Section 9, for the revision or the amendment of rules and regulation.

Section 2. To be eligible for consideration by the Board of Directors, a proposed amendment to LQHA Bylaws shall be filed in writing in the office of the Secretary at least 10 days prior to the meeting of the Board of Directors at which time the proposed amendment is to be considered. The proposed draft shall be promptly sent by the Secretary to each individual eligible to vote at a meeting of Directors. The requirement contained in this paragraph may be suspended by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting upon a two-thirds majority vote of eligible voters present, provided a quorum is present.

ARTICLE VIII INDEMNIFICATION

LQHA shall indemnify and hold harmless any Officer, Director, Past President, and employee of LQHA, their personal representatives and heirs, against reasonable legal expense, judgments, and expense of settlement which LQHA previously approved, actually and reasonable incurred in connection with an actual or threatened legal proceeding, if such person acted legally, in good faith, and was duly authorized to act on behalf of LQHA in the transaction from which legal liability arose, which was official LQHA business, except in relation to matters as to which he shall have been guilty of negligence or misconduct in respect of the matter in which indemnity is sought. To preserve this right of indemnity, such person shall immediately notify LQHA of such actual or threatened litigation, whereupon LQHA shall have the right to direct defense thereof, including, but not limited to, selection of counsel, and direction of settlement negotiations.

ARTICLE IX

Committees

Section 1. Committees shall be appointed from the current Board or Membership by the President with the consent of the Board of Directors as needed and serve for the length of time deemed necessary.

SHOW APPROVAL

In order for a show to be approved by the Louisiana Quarter Horse Association (LQHA), the following mandatory requirements shall be met:

1. The show must be properly approved by the American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA).
 2. The show must be located within the State of Louisiana or any other state that the Board of Directors has approved
 3. The request for show approval must be directed to the LQHA secretary's office at least ninety (90) days prior to the approved show date(s).
 4. Show approval must be requested from LQHA by means of a show approval form provided by LQHA. The show secretary/management must certify to LQHA that these mandatory rules will be complied with at least ninety (90) days prior to the approved show date(s). The show approval form must be accompanied by a show bill and list of awards to be offered. It should be mailed to LQHA, 14560 Miscar Rd, Kentwood, La. 70444.
 5. LQHA will not approve two (2) shows in Louisiana on the same date(s). The only exception would be a special event of a Class not held in conjunction with the already APPROVED SHOW.
 6. No show, regardless of location, will be approved if its date(s) conflict with the LQHA Awards Banquet, 4-H State or Regional Shows, or the AQHYA World Championship Show.
 7. Within ten (10) days from the completion of the show, the show secretary must furnish LQHA with a COMPLETE SET OF SHOW RESULTS. The specific information furnished must include:
 - a. a copy of the class results listed by order of placing in each AQHA registered class, including Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion in all halter classes, with:
 - i. the registered name of the horse,
 - ii. the AQHA registration number of the horse,
 - iii. the name of the exhibitor with his/her AQHA registration number,
 - iv. the name and AQHA number of the owner of the horse if different from the exhibitor,
 - v. the sex of the horse,
 - vi. the foal date of the horse, and,
 - vii. the birth date of the exhibitor if he/she is a youth.
 - b. the AQHA class description numbers for each class,
 - c. a summary list of the AQHA class codes offered at that show,
 - d. the name and address of the judge, and,
 - e. the name and address of the show manager, the show secretary, and the address of the show.
- This copy of the show results must be accompanied by a fee of $1.00 per registered entry at the show (this includes Open, Amateur, Youth, and Novice entries). A summary sheet with the total number of entries per division should be included. Failure to comply with this rule will result in the show not being approved for the following year. A 10% penalty will be assessed if the show results are not received within ten (10) days of the completion of the show.
8. LQHA will honor all suspensions and disciplinary actions taken by AQHA.

9. Show facilities must adhere to the following minimum standards and guidelines:
 - a. the arena will be fenced; if fencing is not made of pipe, then the posts must be outside and the wire and/or boards inside;
 - b. fresh drinking water will be available for both horses and exhibitors;
 - c. clean toilet facilities will be provided with separate facilities for men and women except where portable toilet facilities are used;
 - d. show grounds are to be clean and free from objects that could result in injury to the horse and/or rider;
 - e. the sound system used will be audible to all parts of the show grounds including arena, warm-up pen and stabling area;
 - f. there will be adequate lighting for those shows continuing into the night;
 - g. the arena should be well-drained;
 - h. the arena surface must be properly prepared and maintained during the show;
 - i. a minimum of seventy five (75) good, safe stalls will be available and located on the show grounds; (except Special Events)
 - j. all grass in the show grounds should be neatly cut; the grass should be trimmed out of the arena fence;
 - k. arenas should be wet down to avoid excessive dust;
 - l. an electronic timer should be used for all timed events;
 - m. adequate signs should be located along the roadways providing directions to the show; and, there should be adequate and sufficient parking provided for cars, trucks, and trailers.
10. Adequate and qualified personnel should be used to conduct the show. The show manager, secretary, ring steward, and announcer should be familiar with the proceedings of an approved AQHA show.
11. All show secretaries and managers requesting LQHA show approval must be members in good standing of the LQHA before show approval will be granted.
12. Failure to comply with these rules will result in disapproval of the sponsoring organization's show for the following year. Official complaints with regard to violations of these rules will be investigated. The Association president has the authority to appoint a committee to investigate violation of these rules with all findings being brought before the Board of Directors for their final disposition and action. Prior to the Board's final disposition and action, the sponsoring organization will be provided written notice of the violations and an opportunity to be heard and/or to correct the violations within a reasonable time period to be decided by the Board of Directors. All investigations, findings, corrective measurements and final dispositions shall be published on the association's website.
13. All other guidelines set forth in AQHA's Official Handbook of Rules and Regulations will be followed.

LQHA Hall of Fame Nomination Criteria

Mission Statement: The mission of the Louisiana Quarter Horse Association Hall of Fame shall be to honor those LQHA members who have faithfully served and contributed to the success of LQHA or positively impacted the American Quarter Horse Association throughout the years.

Nominating a Horse or Person to the Louisiana Quarter Horse Hall of Fame:

Anyone can nominate a person or horse to the Louisiana Quarter Horse Hall of Fame
